5. (a) Whereas the same resolution contains wording to the effect that Council “opposes private ownership and operation of such facilities”; and
Whereas City Council is anxious to ensure that there is no confusion regarding its position which could affect a number of facilities in our community:
Now therefore be it resolved that the Council resolution of 2000 02 21 be reconsidered and rescinded and that the following be substituted on this matter:

Whereas professional, effective and efficient service delivery is imperative in the running of correctional services across Ontario; and
Whereas the Ontario Government has announced its intention to seek public-private partnerships in a number of areas of correctional service delivery;
Therefore be it resolved that the Minister of Correctional Services be asked to ensure that appropriately high standards of service delivery and safety are established for the future delivery of Ontario’s correctional services;
And further that the Minister ensure any and all service delivery options are evaluated in accordance with these standards to ensure effective, safe and efficient delivery of correctional services in Ontario. CARRIED.
